

Workshop:

Diversity in Language and Culture: KINSHIP

7 – 9 Oct. 2021

Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz/Germany

organised by:

Svenja Völkel (svanja.voelkel@uni-mainz.de)

Nico Nassenstein (nnassens@uni-mainz.de)

Programme

Thursday, 7 October 2021		Venue: Forum 7, room: 1-715 (HS 14)
12:00 - 13:00	Arrival/registration
13:00 - 13:15	Welcome (Svenja Völkel, Nico Nassenstein & Franziska Fay)
13:15 - 14:00	David B. Kronenfeld (University of California at Riverside, USA): Individual vs. collective cognitive shapers of terminology
14:00 - 14:45	Bettina Beer (University of Lucerne, Switzerland): 'De/Re-kinning' and the role of choice in conceptions of kinship
14:45 - 15:00	Discussion
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 - 16:15	Julia Pauli (University of Hamburg, Germany): Women without men. Female kinship beyond marriage in Mexico and Namibia
16:15 - 17:00	Donald Gardner (ANU Canberra, Australia): Terms, systems and the pragmatics of kin relations
17:00 - 17:15	Discussion
17:15 - 18:00	Working phase: The research on kinship between genealogical classification and 'doing' (chair: Konstanze N'Guessan, University of Mainz/Germany)
18:00	Informal get together with drinks and snacks

Friday, 8 October 2021		Venue: Forum 7, room: 1-715 (HS 14)
8:30 - 9:15	Maria Koptjevskaja-Tamm (Stockholm University, Sweden): The linguistics of kinship
9:15 - 10:00	Cliff Goddard (Griffith University Brisbane, Australia): Conceptual building blocks of "kinship", with the focus on 'mother' and 'father'
10:00 - 10:15	Discussion
10:15 - 10:30	Coffee break
10:30 - 11:15	Walter Bisang (University of Mainz, Germany): The use of kinship terms in grammar
11:15 - 12:00	Christoph Antweiler (University of Bonn, Germany): On extended and expanded kinship. Critical remarks on kinship metaphors and metonyms in research on the Anthropocene
12:00 - 12:15	Discussion
12:15 - 13:30	Lunch break

13:30 - 14:15	Nico Nassenstein (University of Mainz, Germany) & Innocent Mwaka (University of Cologne, Germany): New perspectives on joking relationships and kinship: Insights from East Africa
14:15 - 15:00	Luke Fleming (University of Montreal, Canada): Grading and gradience in kinship avoidances
15:00 - 15:15	Discussion
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee break
15:30 - 16:15	Svenja Völkel (University of Mainz, Germany): Anthropological-linguistic insights to kinship: Social concepts, cultural practice, and linguistic expressions
16:15 - 17:00	Working phase: New directions in anthropological-linguistic kinship studies
18:30	Conference dinner (Baron)

Saturday, 9 October 2021		Venue: Forum 7, room: 1-715 (HS 14)
9:00 – 9:45	Sam Passmore (Keio University, Tokyo/Japan) Kinbank: A global database of kinship terminology
9:45 - 10:30	Laurent Dousset (EHESS & University of Aix-Marseille, France): Language, kin classification and territoriality. How to think deep-historical rationales through the pragmatics of kinship
10:30 - 10:45	Discussion
10:45 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 11:45	Patrick Heady (Max Planck Institute Halle, Germany): Not too similar, and not too different - secondary kin terms and spatial marriage patterns in Europe
11:45 - 12:00	Discussion
12:00 - 12:45	Working phase: Workshop publication, research projects, etc. (Svenja Völkel & Nico Nassenstein)
12:45 - 13:00	Closing

Eine Teilnahme als Zuhörer ist in der momentanen Situation nur nach vorheriger Anmeldung per e-mail an die Organisatoren möglich.